

Houston Forward Times

Happy Mother's Day!

REPORTING THE TRUTH | AFFECTING CHANGE | MOVING FORWARD

MAY 8 - 14, 2013 - VOL. 53 NO. 20

| 50C

LARGEST BLACK OWNED INDEPENDENTLY PUBLISHED NEWSPAPER IN THE SOUTH

Newsline

IN THIS ISSUE

OFF THE PRESS - 2A

Children Need to Fly, Too, to End Sequestration

LOCAL NEWS - 5A

Social Security New Mobile Site for Smartphone Users

LIFESTYLE - 1B

Houston Black Real Estate Association 2013 Realist Week

"A HISTORIC PARTNERSHIP"

A Stronger Commitment to Building Stronger Communities

Charity Productions CEO Charles X. White and Karen Carter Richards, CEO/Publisher Houston Forward Times

BY JEFFREY L. BONEY
Associate Editor

The Houston Forward Times has scored another first by signing a monumental and historic Memorandum of Understanding (M.O.U.) with Charity Productions/Community Partnership Exchange Breakfast operating on the north and south sides of town and are scheduling two additional locations in 2014. This is the largest quarterly gathering of civic-minded people with an average attendance of nearly 500 people from neighborhoods that are labeled by the government as underserved, hard to serve, and vulnerable.

"This specific partnership will help us get information straight from the community, strengthen our brand and increase our subscription base. We look forward to fulfilling the details of our partnership." The Houston Forward Times and CHARITY Productions are collaborating to achieve the following goals: